BARNEY MONK
EVENT STAFFING & PAYROLL

EVENT PERSONNEL SERVICES AGREEMENT

This Event Personnel Services Agreement (The "Agreement") is entered into and effective as of _____ ("Effective Date") by and between XXXX (hereinafter referred to as "Client"), and BARNEY-MONK, LLC (hereinafter referred to as "BMLLC") to provide a specialized temporary workforce ("Staff") for the management of the set-up and operation of certain live events produced by Client and specified herein. This Agreement is applicable only for the event(s) identified in an applicable work order ("Work Order") executed by the Parties ("Events").

Conditions Precedent: BMLLC's obligations under this Agreement are expressly conditioned upon Client's execution and delivery to BMLLC of this Agreement.

WHEREAS, BMLLC is an Ohio limited liability company which provides clients with production and event solutions including staffing and labor ("Services"), mainly to its customers who are engaged in the production of live events at various venues.

WHEREAS, BMLLC maintains Collective Bargaining Agreements ("CBA's") with the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees ("IATSE") and other labor organizations in and around the United States as well as individuals with advanced Entertainment Industry skills, such as production sound mixers, lighting board operators, video camera operators & engineers, and teleprompter operators.

WHEREAS, Client desires to engage BMLLC as its exclusive third-party provider of Services for Event(s) pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

WHEREAS, BMLLC desires to provide Client with Services for Event(s) pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration for the mutual conditions and covenants that follow and for good and valuable consideration the Parties agree as follows:

1. Provision of Staff. BMLLC will provide services of Staff for Event(s), as requested by Client reasonably in advance of an Event and as identified in the applicable Work Order. (A sample Work Order is attached hereto as Exhibit A and incorporated herein.) BMLLC shall have sole discretion in the selection and scheduling of Staff, except that all Staff must be acceptable to the management and security departments of each production venue. Client may request specific Staff personnel be assigned to Event(s) and BMLLC will use reasonable efforts to accommodate such request(s) subject to the terms of any applicable collective bargaining agreement. Client will not directly schedule, supervise, or communicate with Staff except by Client's on-site agent during the Event(s) only as necessary and as related to the creative, commercial, and technical standards and content of the Event(s). BMLLC shall conduct all evaluations of work and/or investigations concerning or involving Staff and shall be solely responsible for initiating any appropriate follow-up.

2. Compensation. In consideration of BMLLC providing the Services, Client shall compensate BMLLC in U.S. Dollars the amounts set forth in the applicable Work Order and as per the final invoice(s).

3. Payment Terms. Except as otherwise set forth in a Work Order, BMLLC shall invoice Client electronically upon completion of each Event, and Client shall treat such invoices as payroll, paying them within seven (7) days after invoice date. Client expressly acknowledges that BMLLC's rights to payment hereunder to the extent of payroll reimbursement is an assignment right and not a subrogation right, and that BMLLC is entitled to priority in the event of filing by Client for bankruptcy protection under any provision of the United States Bankruptcy Code. Invoices that are past due or beyond agreed upon terms will be charged: (a) a monthly service charge of 1.5% of the unpaid balance until paid in full, and (b) if placed for collection, an amount not less than 33% of the unpaid principal and interest, covering attorney's fees and other costs of collection. In addition to the bill rates specified in the applicable Work Order, Client will pay BMLLC the amount of all new or increased costs associated with Staff that BMLLC is legally required to pay—such as wages, benefits, payroll taxes, social program contributions, or charges linked to benefit levels—until the parties agree on new bill rates. Client's obligation to make payment to BMLLC pursuant to this Agreement is independent of any other obligation contained herein and failure to timely make such payment(s) shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement.

4. Exclusivity. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Client hereby grants to BMLLC exclusivity as regards the Staff set-up and operation of live events which are carried out by Client during the Term of this Agreement. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, BMLLC shall be the exclusive provider of the Staff services to Client and, during the Term, Client shall not engage in any discussions or negotiations or enter into any agreement with any other party for the provision of services which are the same as or similar to the BMLLC services. Notwithstanding the above, if BMLLC refuses to provide Services for an event due to insufficient advance notice from Client or the failure of the Parties to reach terms of a Work Order acceptable to BMLLC, Client shall be free to secure Staff services from a third party for such event.

5. Initial Term & Renewal Option. This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and shall continue through the Expiration Date ("Initial Term"), expiration of any renewals ("Renewal Term"), or earlier termination of this Agreement all as set forth, below.

Renewal Term(s): Client will have the option to renew this Agreement for an additional one (1) year period (the "First Renewal Term") upon Notice to BMLLC at least sixty (60) days prior to termination of the Initial Term. Client will have the option to renew this Agreement for a second one (1) year period (the "Second Renewal Term") upon Notice to BMLLC at least sixty (60) days prior to the termination of the First Renewal Term (the Initial Term, First Renewal Term, and Second Renewal Term shall collectively be referred to as "Term").

6. BMLLC Obligations. BMLLC will, with respect to such Services, be solely responsible for (a) paying the Staff and making all proper payroll deductions, including income tax and Social Security tax deductions, required under state, federal, city, county and regional laws; (b) making all payments for applicable employment related taxes, including but not limited to income tax, Social Security tax and unemployment and disability insurance, where applicable, to the proper government agency or authority, as the employer of Staff assigned to Client pursuant to applicable laws; (c) providing workers' compensation coverage for said Staff along with any additional employment related benefits lawfully required of the employer of said Staff; (d) handling all disputes and preparing and filing with the proper governmental agency or authority all returns and reports required in connection with (a), (b) and (c) above; (e) furnishing to Client, upon request, a Certificate of Insurance evidencing workers compensation insurance coverage; (f) comply with all provisions of the Affordable Care Act ("ACA") applicable to Staff, including the employer shared responsibility provisions relating to the offer of "minimum essential coverage" to "full-time" employees (as those terms are defined in Code §4980H and related regulations) and the applicable employer information reporting provisions under Code §6055 and §6056 and related regulations; and (g) cooperate fully and to provide assistance to Client in the investigation and resolution of any complaints, claims, actions, or proceedings that may be brought by or that may involve Services. BMLLC will defend, indemnify, and hold Client and its parent, subsidiaries, directors, officers, agents, representatives, and employees harmless from all claims including third party claims, losses, and liabilities (including reasonable attorneys' fees) to the extent caused by BMLLC's breach of its duties and responsibilities set forth in this Paragraph 6, and as limited within Paragraph 16 of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Parties acknowledge that the choice of the Venue in which Event(s) are to take place is solely within the control of Client. Accordingly, BMLLC shall not be liable for any violations of federal, state or local laws or regulations related to the Venue, including those related to health and safety.

7. Right to Control. As the common-law employer, BMLLC retains the right to inspect worksites, review Staff performance, enforce employment-related policies, investigate complaints, and take corrective action consistent with applicable law.

8. Compliance With Laws. Each Party agrees that it shall, at all times and at its own expense, comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, ordinances, and orders governing its business operations, workplace conditions, and conduct under this Agreement, including but not limited to laws enforced by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), the National Labor Relations Act (NLRA), the Fair Labor Standards

Act (FLSA), the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the Occupational Safety and Health Act (OSHA), state and local wage-and-hour laws, whistleblower-protection and anti-retaliation statutes, privacy and data-security laws, and applicable antitrust laws. Each Party shall maintain all required records, policies, training, and workplace practices necessary to ensure such compliance and shall not take any action, or direct the other Party to take any action, that would cause a violation of any applicable law.

9. Cooperation in Compliance. Each Party agrees to fully cooperate with the other Party in all matters necessary to ensure compliance with applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, ordinances, and orders, including but not limited to laws enforced by the EEOC, the National Labor Relations Act (NLRA), the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA), the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), OSHA, state and local wage-and-hour laws, whistleblower-protection and anti-retaliation statutes, privacy and data-security laws, and applicable antitrust laws. Such cooperation includes providing timely access to relevant records, information, policies, training materials, and personnel; responding promptly to reasonable requests related to audits, investigations, administrative inquiries, or legal proceedings; and refraining from taking any action that would impede, delay, or interfere with the other Party's ability to comply with or demonstrate compliance with applicable law. Each Party shall promptly notify the other Party of any known or suspected legal violation, government inquiry, or workplace concern related to the Services that may require joint action or coordinated response.

10. Client Obligations. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing, Client agrees that it bears full and exclusive responsibility for compliance with all federal, state, and local laws governing its business, workplace conditions, and treatment of Staff, including but not limited to laws enforced by the EEOC, the National Labor Relations Act (NLRA), OSHA, FLSA, ADA, FMLA, state and local wage-and-hour laws, AI laws, privacy laws, whistleblower-protection statutes, anti-retaliation laws, and antitrust laws. Client agrees that it shall (a) maintain day-to-day operational oversight and assignments related to Staff; (b) properly supervise Staff performing its work and be responsible for its business operations, products, Staff, and intellectual property; (c) properly supervise, control, and safeguard its premises, processes, or systems, and not permit Staff to operate any vehicle or mobile equipment (including material-handling equipment) or entrust them with unattended premises, cash, checks, keys, credit cards, merchandise, confidential or trade-secret information, negotiable instruments, or other valuables without BMLLC's express prior written approval or as strictly required by the job description provided to BMLLC; (d) exclude Staff from Client's benefit plans, policies, and practices, and not make any offer or promise relating to Staff's compensation or benefits; (e) provide Staff with a safe workplace and all necessary safety equipment, devices, tools, training, and personal protective equipment with respect to any hazardous substances or conditions to which Staff may be exposed at the work site; (f) ensure proper recordkeeping as required by law, including but not limited to OSHA 300 Logs, safety training records, and all timekeeping records; (g) comply with all applicable orders, rules, regulations, and laws with respect to its business, the Staff, and the Services, including all laws protecting employees' rights to report concerns, engage in protected activity, or refuse unsafe work; (h) cooperate with any BMLLC investigation into Staff job performance, on-the-job injury, safety incident, or other work-related issues while assigned to Client; (i) cooperate with BMLLC, where applicable, to comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), as amended; (j) confirm the records of the hours worked by the Staff assigned hereunder; and (k) provide any such records to BMLLC for their use in calculating wages owed to Staff, warranting and unconditionally guaranteeing the accuracy and completeness of all records provided. Client shall not request or permit Staff to change assigned job duties without BMLLC's express prior written approval; (l) to work unreported hours, including but not limited to unreported overtime; (n) to work hours in excess of those permitted by applicable law; or (m) to miss, delay, or otherwise fail to receive all lawfully required rest breaks and meal periods; or (n) require or permit Staff to provide their biometric data, including but not limited to a retina or iris scan, fingerprint, voiceprint, or scans of hand or face geometry, or any information, regardless of how captured, converted, stored or shared, based on an individual's biometric identifier used to identify an individual without obtaining regulatory required prior written consent from BMLCC and Identified Staff. Client shall immediately notify BMLLC of any workplace injury, safety incident, government audit, inspection, complaint, charge, or inquiry involving Staff.

11. Insurance. Each Party shall maintain the insurance set forth in the applicable Work Order. All such insurance shall be provided pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and the applicable policy(ies), and shall be issued by reputable insurers rated "A" or better by A.M. Best and Co. Upon request, each party shall furnish the other Party with Certificates of Insurance.

12. Nature of Relationship. BMLLC shall perform all Services as an independent contractor. Nothing in this Agreement creates a partnership, joint venture, agency, or employment relationship between BMLLC and Client.

13. Representations, Warranties and Covenants. Each Party represents that: (i) it is duly organized with full power and authority to transact and conduct its business as it is presently being conducted; (ii) it has and will continue to have the right to enter into and fully perform this Agreement; and (iii) it has not entered and will not enter arrangement which would preclude the full performance of its obligations hereunder with respect to this Agreement.

14. Mutual Indemnification. Each Party agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the other Party, together with its respective parent companies, subsidiaries, affiliates, successors, assigns, and each of their officers, directors, members, managers, employees, and agents (collectively, the "Indemnified Parties"), from and against any and all claims, demands, actions, damages, liabilities, losses, fines, penalties, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of or relating to the indemnifying Party's breach of this Agreement; the indemnifying Party's violation of any federal, state, or local law, regulation, or order, including but not limited to laws enforced by the EEOC, the National Labor Relations Act (NLRA), the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA), the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), OSHA, state and local wage-and-hour laws, whistleblower-protection and anti-retaliation statutes, and antitrust laws; or the indemnifying Party's negligence, willful misconduct, or failure to maintain a safe and legally compliant workplace. Client's indemnification obligations additionally extend to any claim arising from Client's supervision, direction, control, or use of Staff, including unsafe worksite conditions; failure to provide required safety equipment, training, or hazard communication; inaccurate or incomplete time records; failure to provide legally required meal or rest breaks; assignment of duties outside the scope approved by BMLLC; or any representation, promise, or communication made by Client to Staff regarding compensation, benefits, or terms of employment. BMLLC's indemnification obligations are limited to claims arising solely from BMLLC's failure to pay wages owed to Staff based on accurate time records provided by Client, or BMLLC's own independent violation of applicable law unrelated to Client's supervision, direction, or worksite conditions. No Party shall be required to indemnify the other for claims caused by the other Party's own negligence, misconduct, or legal violations.

15. Termination. Either party may terminate this Agreement: (a) at any time, by providing the other party with written notice of termination at least thirty (30) days prior to the annual anniversary of the Effective Date during the Initial Term, or thirty (30) days prior to the termination of a Renewal Term, if any; (b) in the event of a material uncured breach or default by the other Party of any of its material obligations under this Agreement, provided that (i) Notice is provided to the other Party in writing: and (ii) such breach or default is not cured within ten (10) days following the date such Notice is deemed given, unless such breach or default is by nature uncurable in which case this Agreement shall be terminable on the date of Notice; (c) in the event that the other Party (i) institutes or otherwise becomes a party, voluntarily or involuntarily, to a proceeding alleging or pertaining to the insolvency or bankruptcy of that Party; (ii) is dissolved or liquidated; (iii) makes an assignment of its material assets for the benefit of creditors; and/or, (iv) initiates or is subject to reorganization proceedings in which case this Agreement shall be terminable on the date written notice is deemed given to such Party; (d) in the event a receiver has been appointed for all or a substantial part of the other Party's business; (e) in the event the other Party shall have permitted or suffered any attachment, levy or execution to be made or levied against all or a substantial portion of its assets; or (f) with respect to BMLLC, if ongoing Services to Client may cause BMLLC unforeseen, ongoing, or irreparable damage, as determined in its sole discretion.

16. Limitation on Liability. Except with regard to indemnification obligations, the Parties mutually agree that in no event will either party be liable for any exemplary, indirect, special, or consequential damages, whether based on contract, tort, including negligence, by statute or under any quasi-contractual theory of liability, or any other legal theory, including without limitation, loss of profits, loss of business, loss of goodwill, privacy act or data breach, or other economic damages, even if advised of the possibility of such loss or damage. Neither Party's liability for damages or indemnity under this Agreement, regardless of the form of action, will exceed, per claim, the maximum financial amount covered by applicable insurance coverage, of which the Parties mutually agreed upon as referenced in this Agreement and the applicable Work Order. Neither Party limits its liability for economic damages resulting from fraud, personal injury or death caused by its own sole negligence and this clause does not apply to such liability.

17. Performance Guarantee. Upon the reasonable request of Client, BMLLC agrees to replace a Staff person(s) assigned to Client, whose performance has been reasonably determined to be unsatisfactory. Such replacement will be at no charge to Client when notice has been provided within the first four (4) hours of such assignment.

18. Entire Agreement and Assignment. This Agreement together and each BMLLC-approved Work Order attached hereto or subsequently entered into by the Parties and each of the terms of which are hereby incorporated herein, collectively constitute shall be binding upon the parties, their successors, legal representatives and assigns, and constitute contractual obligations between the respective Parties and shall serve as the entire agreement between them. There are no other representations, oral or written, relied upon by Client. BMLLC reserves the right to modify this Agreement by providing at least fourteen (14) days written Notice to the Client, identifying the effective date of such modifications. Client shall be deemed to have accepted and agreed to such changes by placing orders for Services unless Client elects to terminate the Services by providing written Notice to BMLLC prior to the effective date of the change. It is further understood and agreed that only written changes signed by both Parties will be legally binding as amendments or alterations to this Agreement. The Staff/Services assigned hereunder are not assignable by Client without prior written consent of BMLLC. It is understood that BMLLC may subcontract, assign and/or delegate certain administrative functions provided hereunder to third parties and/or affiliated entities.

19. Confidentiality. In the course of performing Services, each Party may acquire confidential information of the other. As a condition of each Party's release of confidential information to the other, each Party agrees that beginning on the Effective Date of this Agreement and continuing for five (5) years after termination of this Agreement for any reason, each Party agrees not to disclose any information that such Party is informed or reasonably should know is confidential or proprietary information, received in the course of performing its obligations under this Agreement (except to its employees or any independent contractors as may be necessary to effect the purposes of this Agreement; provided, however, that such Party shall inform such personnel of the confidential nature of the information and such Party agrees to be responsible for any breach of these confidentiality provisions by such employees or independent contractors), including any information regarding Client's (including its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates) strategies and plans, advertising campaigns, programs, talent and personnel. Client specifically covenants and agrees that it shall not disclose this Agreement, or any of the terms, conditions, provisions and/or the terms of any Work Orders, to any person for any reason, including for the intent of obtaining competing service bids or proposals.

20. Ownership. BMLLC agrees that (a) nothing in this Agreement is intended to convey any ownership or other rights in the trademarks, service marks, copyrights or other intellectual property rights to Event(s) or Client, artist(s) or their respective affiliates (sometimes collectively and individually referred to herein as the "Trademarks"), (b) ownership of all such Trademarks shall remain the property of Client or the artist(s), as the case may be, and (c) BMLLC will not use any Trademarks without the prior written consent of Client.

21. Force Majeure. No Party shall be liable for delay or failure to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement to the extent caused by an act of God that was beyond its reasonable control, and not caused by its fault or negligence (a "Force Majeure Event"), so long as the non-performing Party notifies the other Party promptly, uses all reasonable efforts to avoid, remove, or mitigate the cause(s) of nonperformance, and suspends performance only for the period of time necessary.

22. Waiver/Severability/Construction/Survival. Failure to enforce any provision contained herein shall not serve to waive any of the parties' rights to recovery or enforcement at any other time, or in any way serve to modify or alter the provisions of this Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement should be held invalid, the remaining provisions shall remain in effect and be so construed as to effectuate the intent and purpose of same. The rule of construction that ambiguities in an agreement are to be construed against the drafter will not be invoked or applied in any dispute regarding the meaning of any provision of this Agreement. Provisions of this Agreement, which by their terms extend beyond the termination or nonrenewal of this Agreement will remain effective after termination or nonrenewal.

23. Choice of Law; Venue; and Statute of Limitations. Except to the extent prohibited by law, any controversy or claim arising out of this Agreement, or the breach thereof, shall be settled by binding arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its Commercial Arbitration Rules. In the event that Client believes that it has any cause of action against BMLLC, Client shall give written Notice of such claim or cause of action no later than ninety (90) days after the date on which the alleged cause of action arose. Client waives any cause of action for which such Notice is not provided to BMLLC. Client additionally agrees that any alleged cause of action against BMLLC, upon providing the aforementioned Notice, must be legally asserted by filing for arbitration such cause of action(s) within the earlier of the applicable Statute of Limitations for such cause of action, or twenty-four (24) months after the date on which the alleged cause of action arose. Unless a cause of action is filed within such time limits, Client agrees that all such alleged causes of action are waived and barred by limitations. In the event that any of this paragraph is found to be unenforceable under applicable law, Client shall give notice within the shortest time period permitted under law and shall file within the shortest period of time permitted under law.

Any arbitration conducted hereunder shall be before a single arbitrator at the American Arbitration Association office located in Maricopa County, Arizona, or as the Parties may agree.

The Parties specifically agree that irrespective of the place of execution or performance, this Agreement, all of the obligations of the Parties arising hereunder, shall be governed, construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Arizona without regard to its "choice of law" principles.

24. Notice. All notices, requests and communications permitted or required hereunder ("Notice") shall be in writing and, unless otherwise stated otherwise by agreement of the parties, may be made by email, fax or letter. Notice is deemed given upon the actual date of receipt by intended and authorized recipient.

25. Recitals. Each of the recitals set forth above is incorporated herein by this reference.

26. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and each of such shall for all purposes be deemed to be an original. Electronic signatures shall be acceptable as original signatures by the Parties.

This Agreement is accepted and agreed on the date executed below.
